

Transforming Community Through the Arts

Chattanooga, TN

April 23, 2004

Program Schedule

---

8:00 - 8:30: Registration, Coffee, and Information Tables

United Way, Central Block Building, 630 Market St.

8:45: Welcoming Remarks

Mai Bell Hurley, Chairman of the Board, United Way of Chattanooga
Don Andrews, Executive Director of Allied Arts of Greater Chattanooga

9:00 - 9:15: Introduction to Program

Simeon Bruner, Founder, Rudy Bruner Award
James Stockard, Curator, Loeb Fellowship Program

9:15 - 10:30: Presentations

Chattanooga's 21st Century Waterfront Plan, The Honorable Bob Corker, Mayor
New Jersey Performing Arts Center - Arts Education Program, Philip S. Thomas, Vice President for Arts Education

10:30 - 10:45: Break

10:45 - 11:45: Discussion Groups

- Room 1 / Blue Group: James Stockard, Facilitator
- Room 2 / Red Group: Reese Fayde, Facilitator
- Room 3 / Green Group: Robert Shibley, Facilitator

12:00 - 1:30: Lunch and Speaker

Introduction: Ruth Holmberg, Secretary, Board of Directors, RiverCity Company

Speaker: Jack Murrah, President, The Lyndhurst Foundation

1:30 – 2:30: Presentations
Project Row Houses, Rick Lowe, Founder
MASS MoCA, Joseph Thompson, Director

2:30 – 2:45: Break

2:45 – 3:45: Discussion Groups (Location)

- Room 1 / Blue Group: Robert Shibley, Facilitator
- Room 2 / Red Group: James Stockard, Facilitator
- Room 3 / Green Group: Reese Fayde, Facilitator

4:45: Wrap-Up

5:00 – 6:30: Wine Reception (Bessie Smith Hall in the African American Museum)
Welcome: Vilma Fields, Executive Director of the African American Museum