
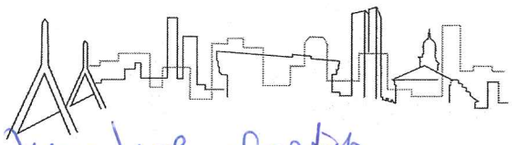
Transforming Community through the Arts

11 | 14 | 2003

Chicago Cultural Center
Chicago, Illinois

BRUNER·LOEB forum

BRUNER•LOEB forum



- gentrification - how create stable artist living / role of artist
Q - whose culture gets developed
- how do artists effect policy to support culture of community
- can policy counter "capitalism"

Transforming Community Through the Arts

Chicago Cultural Center
November 14, 2003

- on time start

Program Schedule

- intro (Alicia)
- more about BLF

8:15 – 9:00: Registration, Coffee, Information Tables (GAR Rotunda)

9:00 - 9:30: Introduction (Cassidy Theater)
Alicia Mazur Berg, Commissioner, Chicago Dept. of Planning and Development
Simeon Bruner, Founder, Rudy Bruner Award
Jim Stockard, Curator, Loeb Fellowship Program

9:30 – 10:15: Presentations (Cassidy Theater)
- Gallery 37, Michelle Boone, Executive Director
- MASS MoCA, Joseph Thompson, Director

- mission creep

10:15 – 10:30: Break (GAR Rotunda)

10:30 – 11:45: Discussion Groups (Fifth Floor Meeting Rooms)

Discussion Theme: How art-based projects impact their respective communities—up sides and down sides.

- Blue Group: Reese Fayed, Facilitator
  Resources: Joseph Thompson, MASS MoCA; Cheryl Hughes, former Director, Gallery 37
- Red Group: Rich Wener, Facilitator
  Resources: Barnaby Evans, WaterFire; Michelle Boone, Gallery 37
- Green Group: Jim Stockard, Facilitator
  Resources: Lily Yeh, Village of Arts and Humanities; Simeon Bruner, Architect, MoCA

Participants are encouraged to use these discussion groups to raise issues relating to art-based placemaking as it relates to their own work.

BRUNER FOUNDATION :: 130 PROSPECT STREET :: CAMBRIDGE, MA 02139 :: 617-492-8404
LOEB FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM ::48 QUINCY STREET::CAMBRIDGE, MA 02138 :: 617-495-9345

12:00 – 1:00: Lunch and Speaker (GAR Hall)
Introductions by Maggie Daly, Chairwoman, Gallery 37 and Cheryl Hughes, Director of Program Development, Mayor's Office of Special Events, City of Chicago and Loeb Fellow '04

- Ms. Lois Weisberg, Commissioner, Chicago Department of Cultural Affairs

1:15 – 2:00: Presentations (Cassidy Theater)

- Village of Arts and Humanities, Lily Yeh, Executive Director
- Providence River Relocation and Waterfire, Barnaby Evans, Executive Director

2:00 - 2:15: Break

2:15 – 3:30: Discussion Groups (Fifth Floor Meeting Rooms)

Discussion Theme: Successes, mistakes and challenges in creating art-based projects.

- Blue Group: Reese Fayed, Facilitator
  Resources: Lily Yeh, Village of Arts and Humanities; Simeon Bruner, Architect, MoCA
- Red Group: Rich Wener, Facilitator
  Resources: Joseph Thompson, MASS MoCA; Cheryl Hughes, former Director, Gallery 37
- Green Group: Jim Stockard, Facilitator
  Resources: Barnaby Evans, WaterFire; Michelle Boone, Gallery 37

Participants are encouraged to use these discussion groups to raise issues relating to art-based placemaking as it relates to their own work.

3:30 – 4:00: Wrap-Up (Cassidy Theater)

4:00 – 4:45: Tour of Gallery 37

4:45 – 6:00: Wine Reception (Gallery 37)

- Marwen ~~Fdn~~ / After Sch/ weekend
- Cincinnati Mentor Proj.

BRUNER FOUNDATION :: 130 PROSPECT STREET :: CAMBRIDGE, MA 02139 :: 617-492-8404
LOEB FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM ::48 QUINCY STREET::CAMBRIDGE, MA 02138 :: 617-495-9345