

Learning from Project Row Houses: Transforming Community Through the Arts

November 16, 2007::Cambridge, MA

Morning Events will be held at the Carpenter Center 24 Quincy Street

Lunch and Afternoon Events will be in Piper Auditorium, Gund Hall, 48 Quincy Street

- 8:30-9:00 Registration and Coffee: Carpenter Center, 24 Quincy St., Sert space (off the up ramp).
- 9:00-9:15 Introduction to Bruner Loeb Forum: Jim Stockard, Screening Room B04 (basement)
- 9:15-9:30 Introduction to Third Ward TX: Andy Garrison, Filmmaker
- 9:30-10:30 Screening of *Third Ward TX
- 10:30 Break – Sert space 2nd Floor Carpenter Center
- 10:45-11:30 Project Row Houses Today: Rick Lowe, Founder
- 11:30-12:15 Facilitated Discussion Groups- Resource people: Susan Rodgerson, Artists for Humanity; Andy Garrison, Nancy Bless, filmmaker, and Reese Fayde, former Executive Director, Living Cities
- Return to Gund Hall, Graduate School of Design, 48 Quincy St., Piper Auditorium
- 12:15-1:15 Lunch: Floor of Piper Auditorium, Gund Hall
- 1:30-1:50 Organizational Challenges: Cheryl Bowmer, Executive Director, Project Row Houses
- 1:50-2:10 The Development Environment: Stuart Kensinger, Project Row Houses Board of Directors, Developer, Kensinger Companies
- 2:10-2:30 Evolving Architecture: Danny Samuels, FAIA, Director of the Rice Building Workshop and Partner, Taft Architects
- 2:30: Break
- 2:45-3:30 Whole Group Discussion/Wrap Up, Piper Auditorium